A joint Conference on “Judicial Reform and the Business Sector” was organised by European Business Association (EBA) and the EU funded project “Consolidation of the Justice System in Armenia” implemented by IRZ – German Foundation for International Legal Cooperation in partnership with Expertise France and the Latvian Court Administration.

The purpose of the conference was to assist in bringing the justice system and business sector closer together and make sure that the justice system in Armenia serves its citizens and businesses. The event was opened by the Head of European Union Delegation to Armenia Ambassador Andrea Wiktorin, Deputy Minister of Justice Yearnuhi Tumanyants, IRZ Project director Teresa Thalhammer Executive Director of EBA Diana Sarumova, members of Supreme Judicial Council, Chamber of Advocates as well as representatives of private businesses. “Armenia continues to face excessive lengths of civil trials, among other things, due to cumbersome judicial procedures and court management leading to an accumulation of backlogs. Predictable, timely and enforceable justice decisions will contribute to trust and stability, thereby a business environment conducive to entrepreneurial activity and investment. The EU remains committed to creating the best climate possible for growth and jobs in the Armenian economy, to the benefit of the Armenian people,” mentioned Ambassador Andrea Wiktorin in her opening speech.
